

MEDIA INFORMATION: THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE IN 2022

Updated: 12 July 2022

This information is for media accredited for the Lambeth Conference. It outlines important dates and opportunities at the event – and provides some operational guidance.

Specific operational notes are available for key days and opportunities as separate documents on request.

Important dates and sessions

A. Three Keynote Addresses with The Archbishop of Canterbury

Dates: Friday 29 July, Friday 5 August, Sunday 7 August 2022

The Archbishop of Canterbury will address the Lambeth Conference. These short addresses will share thinking on the role of the Anglican Communion in responding to issues impacting the world in the 21st Century and the priorities of the communion in the decade ahead.

Keynote 1: God's Church for God's World: A 21st century world needs a 21st century church

What does it mean for the church to be good news today? An address to the conference on the contemporary challenges and themes of our world in the context of theology and mission.

Keynote 2: God's Church for God's World: Living in the world as a Christian

The Anglican Communion is present in 165 countries, with millions of Christians worldwide. How do we engage with our culture without being consumed by it? An address to the conference on what it means to share the hope of the gospel in a challenging world.

Keynote 3: God's Church for God's World: Going into the world and living out our mission as the Anglican Communion

An address to the conference on the Anglican Communion's Five Marks of mission (Tell, Teach, Tend, Transform and Treasure). Looking to the decade ahead, how can we encourage our churches and communities to carry out the five marks of mission in their contexts

The Archbishop of Canterbury will share embargoed extracts of the Keynotes in advance. The Keynotes will be streamed on the Lambeth Conference and Archbishop of Canterbury's social media channels.

B. Regular Press Briefings & Press Conferences on the Lambeth Calls.

Each day, we will offer an overview of the expected events and discussions of the day and look ahead to any anticipated Lambeth Calls that may be made. In the evening, we will offer a recap of the day and the opportunity for you to ask any questions you may have of the day's key spokespeople.

Where possible, we'll invite different contributors to comment on plenary themes and Lambeth Calls, which include:

- Mission and Evangelism
- Safe Church
- Anglican Identity
- Reconciliation
- Human Dignity
- The Environment and Sustainable Development
- Christian Unity
- Inter Faith Relations
- Discipleship
- Science and Faith.

Timings of Press Briefings and Press Conferences

Some timings may be subject to change, but are currently planned as follows:

Morning briefings 0830 - These will occur on the dates of:

- Sat 30 July
- Monday 1 August
- Tuesday 2 August
- Thursday 4 August
- Friday 5 August
- Saturday 6 August

Press Conference dates and times (some timings may alter):

C. The Bishops' Photo – 1430, Friday 29 July 2022

The official photo is a tradition of the Lambeth Conference and always a great photographic opportunity. This will happen on 29 July from 1430. An opportunity for media to gather photos will be given.

D. The Opening Service – Sunday 31 July 2022

The bishops will gather at Canterbury Cathedral for the opening multi-lingual Eucharist service. Bishops will process into the Cathedral. The service will be led by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Revd Justin Welby.

The preacher will be the Bishop of Pretoria, the Right Revd Dr Vicentia Kgabe.

E. The Launch of the Anglican Communion Forest (Embargoed) Wednesday 3 August 2022

On Wednesday 3 August, over 650 bishops and their spouses will travel from Canterbury for a day at Lambeth Palace, for the launch of the Anglican Communion Forest.

Hosted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Revd Justin Welby and Mrs Caroline Welby – the bishops gathered will plant a tree in the Lambeth Palace Garden to mark the launch of the Communion Forest.

The Communion Forest will be a global initiative comprising local activities of forest protection, tree growing and eco-system restoration undertaken by provinces, dioceses and individual churches across the Anglican Communion.

Discussions will also focus on the topic of the Lambeth Call on the Environment and the Lambeth Call on Sustainable Development.

While at Lambeth Palace, the bishops and their spouses will hear speeches from speakers that include the Most Revd Julio Murray, Bishop of El Salvador and Archbishop of Central America; and youth climate activist Elizabeth Wathuti.

A press conference will happen on this day from Lambeth Palace Library and media will also have access to the Lambeth Palace Garden, to hear speeches and see the tree planting

Operational Guidance

Who is Media Accreditation for?

Media accreditation is reserved for media professionals and freelancers (print, photo, radio, television, film, news agencies and online media) who represent an official media organisation or religious reporting service.

How can you apply for Media Accreditation?

Apply via the Lambeth Conference web site on our media page.

Has your accreditation been successful?

If you have already accredited for the Lambeth Conference, you will have received an accreditation acceptance email.

Approvals come from our events registration team, with the email: No-reply@eevents.uk, subject line: Media accreditation acceptance).

Please email: media@lambethconference.org if you have not received this or would like to verify your status.

Accommodation on site

Media can apply to book for on-site accommodation. Prices are advised in our media application process.

Press passes

Accredited media need to use a press pass if attending the event in person.

In Canterbury:

Please report to the Sibson building on arrival to get your pass.

Lambeth Palace Day:

If you have accredited for the day at Lambeth Palace as part of your wider accreditation take your media pass. If you are accrediting for that day only, please ensure your name is advised to our media team in advance, for admission. **media@lambethconference.org**

Media centre

A media centre will be open throughout the conference, based at the University of Kent. Press briefings and press conferences will happen from here. Some workspaces will also be available for media.

The address of the Media Centre is:

Pavilion Café Bar
Park Woods Road
University of Kent in Canterbury
Giles Lane
Canterbury
KCT2 7NZ

Operational Guidance

Press briefings / press conferences

Regular press briefings and regular press conferences will be organised throughout the event by the Lambeth Conference Communications team. Some session times may be subject to change – depending on the events of the day.

Virtual coverage

Any press briefings or conferences that run from our Media Centre at the University of Kent will also be available to accredited media virtually. To gain access, accredited media will be sent the relevant meeting link for the session in advance.

Our media team may have some footage clips available later in the day. Contact Sadie Appleby, via media@lambethconference.org / 07977218906.

Advisory information

As relevant, the on-site communication team will share a media advisory updating accredited media on the sessions for that day and providing them with relevant operational details.

Photographers:

All photography and positions are managed by our Chief of Photography, Neil Turner. Email: media@lambethconference.org or call: 07774 698 947.

Photos will also be made available, free for editorial use, by accredited media. These will be available on PhotoShelter.
<https://lambeth.photoshelter.com>

As some of the venues we are using / or sessions that we are running are in church buildings, we cannot guarantee photo positions for every media team, but will operate a photo pool on days and venues where photo positions are limited.

If a photo position is agreed, photography and filming is permitted from within designated areas. If a member of the communications team advises you to stop filming, please adhere. Photography (no flash) is permitted in the main venue (if conducted with sensitivity). No photography or filming is permitted during worship/prayer or bread/wine/ Eucharist moments.

Streaming

Social Media Channels / Which channels will be used for streaming?

Streamed sessions will be available on Lambeth Conference and other channels too. Specific links will be advised in operational detail

Etiquette

Media enquiries and interview requests

The Lambeth Conference Communications Team is here to help with any media or interview requests you may have for those involved in running the Conference and contributing to Conference sessions. Wherever possible, we will try to connect you with the best person to speak with, based on their particular role or area of expertise.

Where the request is concerning a Lambeth Conference bishop or attendee who is not one of the key contributors to the Conference, we will do our best to connect you either directly with the person you're looking to speak to with or their representative.

Space will be made available for interviews to be conducted in the Media Centre where possible. Please be mindful of other members of the media who may be also looking to use this space. If you have any problems with accessing or booking space for interviews, please email media@lambethconference.org

Media briefings and press conferences

Unless announced officially by the Communications team, no other official media briefings or press conferences will be held. Other organisations and attendees of the Conference may hold their own media briefings and press conferences on or off-site during the Conference (which you are – of course – welcome to attend), but please remember that these will not necessarily reflect the breadth of the Conference, nor will any spokesperson there be speaking on behalf of the Conference Committee or the Anglican Communion.

Conduct

Accreditation is granted to members of the media on the understanding that they respect the nature of this event observe the following standards. We reserve the right to withdraw media accreditation from individuals or organisations who put their accreditation to improper use.

General conduct

- Please behave respectfully towards staff, conference delegates and other members of the media.
- Please wear your press pass whenever you are on-site at the Conference and on the day at Lambeth Palace.
- Please ensure mobile phones are set to silent when in the main meeting venue and be aware that voices carry.
- Reserved seating will be made available in the main venue for the sessions that media will be permitted to attend, please do not sit in other areas.

- If a Bishop or other Conference attendee has indicated that they do not wish to speak with you, please respect their decision and do not continue to approach them. Do not ask others to do so on your behalf.
- There will be space for conducting interviews in the Media Centre. If you are conducting interviews in public spaces, please make sure that you do not block access routes, disrupt other events or interfere with the activities of Conference attendees.
- Please respect times of prayer and worship and closed sessions of bishops' and spouses' programme.

Filming and photography

- Our on-site team will be capturing film and photography of the events of the Conference which we are happy to make available to the media.
- Photography (with no flash) and filming will be permitted during the open sessions of the Conference (if conducted with sensitivity). A limited number of photography spaces will be made available – please liaise with the Communications team to request access.
- When filming or taking photographs on site, please be aware that some people may wish not to be captured on film or in photographs.
- Please respect periods of silence and avoid setting up equipment during worship.
- The use of flash photography is not permitted. Please also avoid visible light rangefinders that project a beam towards the subject.
